In addition to the cross-complaints listed above, there are "deemed" cross-complaints in this matter. On April 5, 2006, the Court entered Case Management Order No. 1 providing that all parties except for plaintiff ORANGE COUNTY WATER DISTRICT were deemed to have cross-complained against each other as follows:

V. UNIVERSAL CROSS COMPLAINTS

7. In the interests of efficiency and case management and to obviate the need for the service and filing of multiple cross-complaints, all Parties except Plaintiff are hereby deemed to have filed cross-complaints against all other Parties except Plaintiff for contribution and equitable indemnity and all Parties except Plaintiff are deemed to have filed an answer denying said cross-complaints and asserting all appropriate affirmative defenses. . . .

. . . All parties added to this case after entry of this Case Management Order No. 1 shall be served with a copy of all Case Management Orders that have been entered in this case and shall be deemed to be included within the scope of the Parties bound by the Case Management Orders.

(Case Management Order No. 1 at pp. 4:5-14, 3:5-8.) As stated, this Order purports to apply to all parties named at that time and to all parties added in the future.

The trial of this matter was set to proceed in phases, with Phase One trying plaintiff ORANGE COUNTY WATER DISTRICT's statutory claims (first and second causes of action) and related declaratory relief claim (sixth cause of action), along with claims for declaratory relief and equitable indemnity in cross-complaints filed against the ORANGE COUNTY WATER DISTRICT by defendants ALCOA GLOBAL FASTENERS, INC., THE ARNOLD ENGINEERING COMPANY, CBS BROADCASTING, INC., CRUCIBLE MATERIALS

1 CORPORATION, EDO CORPORATION, EDO WESTERN CORPORATION, MAG
2 AEROSPACE INDUSTRIES, INC., and NORTHROP GRUMMAN SYSTEMS
3 CORPORATION. The defendants prevailed in the Phase One court trial against the ORANGE
4 COUNTY WATER DISTRICT, with the Court concluding, inter alia, that no conduct by any
5 defendant was a substantial factor in causing the ORANGE COUNTY WATER DISTRICT's
6 alleged harm. As a result, the Court subsequently found that plaintiff ORANGE COUNTY
7 WATER DISTRICT could not prevail on its remaining trespass, nuisance, and negligence causes
8 of action against the defendants. An Order granting defendants EDO CORPORATION and EDO
9 WESTERN CORPORATION's motion for determination of good faith settlement was filed on 10 July 10, 2012. Judgment was entered in favor of defendant MAG AEROSPACE INDUSTRIES,
11 INC. on July 14, 2014, and judgment was entered in favor of the other defendants listed in this
12 paragraph on June 20, 2014.

13 By virtue of numerous settlements, judgments entered on pre-trial motions, and the 14 judgments described above, all claims between the ORANGE COUNTY WATER DISTRICT and 15 all the defendants have been resolved. The only remaining claims at issue are those asserted in the 16 various cross-complaints.

17 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED
18 THAT:

19 All cross-complaints pending in this matter, both the filed cross-complaints listed above
20 and deemed cross-complaints, and including all parties and all causes of action, are hereby
21 DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. This dismissal applies to the filed cross-complaints
22 and/or deemed cross-complaints of the following parties:

9 immediately above. In their capacity as cross-complainants, the causes of action these parties
10 asserted are hereby dismissed. In their capacity as cross-defendants, the causes of action asserted
11 against these parties are dismissed. Because of this situation, the Court hereby finds pursuant to 12 California Code of Civil Procedure section 1032, subdivision (a)(4), and any other applicable law
13 that there is no prevailing party with respect to the dismissal of the cross-complaints, and each
14 party shall bear its own fees and costs.
